

Faith and Health Network Conference

Hosted by the NHSE Legacy and Health Equity Partnership, this conference will bring together key faith and health partners, to reflect on work already delivered and look towards the future of these partnerships

Monday 4 December 2023

09:30 to 12:30

Friend's House, 173-177 Euston Road, London NW1 2BJ

Conference aims

- Bring together representatives of health system partners, faith partners, academics, and other stakeholders
- Identify and showcase good practice examples of collaboration between faith-based organisations and health agencies
- Explore how we sustain and develop relationships to ensure ongoing engagement in public health issues for faith communities to improve delivery and access of health services and reduce health inequalities.
- Facilitate the creation of a network of faith networks
