

North East Public Health Awards

Professor Peter Kelly

OHID/NHSE Regional Director of Public Health

#nephconf24

Contribution to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

Shortlisted

Dan Steward, Newcastle University

'Transforming systems that address health inequalities and engagement with those living with severe mental ill-health (SMI) in the North East and North Cumbria (NENC)'

Grace Wali, Stockton-on-Tees Borough Council

'Community assets & addressing inequality – the ripple effect of Public Health work experience'

Jo Meynell, County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust

'Improving the Uptake of Cancer Information and Support by Veterans'

Dr Michelle Horridge, NHS England

'Screened from view. Inequalities in screening programme uptake among female prisoners'

Dr Floor Christie-de Jong & Rawand Jarrar, University of Sunderland & Fuse

'Improving uptake of breast, bowel and cervical cancer screening among Muslim women: a non-randomised feasibility study of a peer-led, faith-based intervention (IMCAN project)'

#nephconf24

Awarded to

Michelle Horridge

For,

‘Screened from view. Inequalities in screening programme uptake among female prisoners’

#nephconf24

Innovation in Public Health Practice

Shortlisted

Alice Beadle & Andrew Richardson, ADPH North East Gambling Harms Programme

'ADPH North East Gambling Harms'

Becky James, Office for Health Improvement and Disparities (OHID)

'Reading for Wellbeing'

Emma Roycroft, Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

'Dirty air where we should feel most safe: Addressing health inequalities using a Quality Improvement (QI) approach to tackle smoking on a hospital site'

Dr Sarah Sowden & Dr Sameena Hassan, OHID / Newcastle University

'In at the Deep End: Innovative approaches to engaging underserved communities to improve health and reduce inequalities'

Victoria Cooling & Claire Mathews, OHID

'Exploring Equity in Targeted Lung Cancer Screening (TLCS) in North East North Cumbria (NENC) – An opportunity to address inequalities'

#nephconf24

Awarded to

Alice Beadle & Andrew Richardson

For,

‘ADPH North East Gambling Harms’

#nephconf24

Collaboration in Public Health Practice

Shortlisted

Claire McNaney & Alison Cowling, Gateshead Council

'Lived experience as a pillar of suicide prevention'

Emer Cullen, OHID/ADPH North East

'Using a listening exercise and an adapted budget prioritisation process to support regional collaboration and improved ways-of-working through the Tobacco'

Hannah Hobson and Emily Lawson, South Tyneside and Sunderland NHS Foundation Trust

'Engaging people with low health literacy about health information'

Kirsty Foster, UK Health Security Agency

'A cluster of meningococcal disease in a nursery: how joint working provided reassurance and effective delivery of public health interventions'

Melissa Pinder, Hartlepool Borough Council

'Implementation of a Pilot Respiratory Offer within a substance misuse service in collaboration with the Integrated Care Board'

Sarah Slater, Public Health South Tees

'Enhancing Adolescent Vaccination Consent Rates: A Behavioural Science Project in North East England'

#nephconf24

Awarded to

Emer Cullen

For,

‘Using a listening exercise and an adapted budget prioritisation process to support regional collaboration and improved ways-of-working through the Tobacco’

#nephconf24

Overall Contribution to Public Health in the North East

Shortlisted

Andy Lloyd, Fresh and Balance

'Influencing behaviour and policy: the role of mass media campaigns'

Dr Anna Purna Basu, Newcastle University

'Hospital in-reach family-centred social prescribing pilot for children with neurodisability: mixed methods evaluation with social return on investment analysis'

Kirsty Roe, Local Knowledge and Intelligence Service OHID

'Developing a pipeline of public health intelligence specialists for the North East – the Andy Billett Apprenticeship Scheme'

Rosie Baker, OHID

'North East and North Cumbria Women's Health Needs Assessment'

#nephconf24

Awarded to

Rosie Baker

For,

‘North East and North Cumbria Women’s Health Needs Assessment’

#nephconf24