

ADPH Annual Conference 2015

Making the case for Public Health

Monday 2nd November 2015

9.30 - 16.30

Woburn House, 20 Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9HQ

The conference will be chaired by Dr Andrew Furber, ADPH President

9.30	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Welcome and introduction Reflections on ADPH activity and the Presidential role	Dr Andrew Furber , President, ADPH
10.20	Keynote address The key pillars of healthy ageing and wider evidence on the economics of public health	Dr Anna Dixon , CEO of the Centre for Ageing Better
11.00	Refreshments
11.25	Panel commentaries and discussion Making the economic case for public health	Chair: Dr Tim Allison , Secretary, ADPH <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David Buck, Senior Fellow, Public Health and Inequalities, Kings Fund • Prof Brian Ferguson, Chief Economist at PHE • Dr Judith Richardson, Programme Director – Leadership and Engagement, NICE Q & A
12.15	Making the economic case for public health	Round table discussions
13.00	Lunch
14.00	Keynote address Place-based leadership	Stephen Dorrell , a Senior Adviser to KPMG supporting the Global Health and Public Sector practices and a former Member of the UK Parliament
14.40	Panel commentaries and discussion The PH role in integration and devolution	Chair: Jim McManus , Membership Secretary, ADPH <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mary Black CBE, Assistant DPH: Health and Social Wellbeing Improvement, Public Health Agency, Northern Ireland • Deborah Cadman OBE, CEO, Suffolk County Council • Steven Pleasant, CEO, Lead Local Authority Chief Executive for Public Health in Greater Manchester Q & A
15.30	Place-based leadership	Round table discussions
16.10	Summary and closing remarks	Dr Andrew Furber , President, ADPH
16.30	Close

Wifi | login: Woburn House Conference Centre | password: condaj

Twitter | #ADPH15