

ADPH Masterclass

Sustainable health and wellbeing – what every DPH should know

16th February 2016

10.00 - 16.30

St Bride Foundation, Bride Lane, Fleet St, London EC4Y 8EQ

Agenda

Facilitator: David Pencheon

Objectives for the day:

- Aligning environmental and financial sustainability in local health economies
- Embedding and aligning sustainable development in local public health action
- Engaging people positively on sustainable development

10.00	Arrivals and coffee
10.30	Introduction and objectives for the day	David Pencheon
10.45	What does sustainability mean in my local area? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How is it already discussed?</li><li>• How is it already embraced?</li><li>• How is it avoided?</li></ul>	Group exercise
11.45	How the healthcare sector has embraced this: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• summary of successes and challenges</li><li>• 2 case studies from: Nottingham and Brighton.</li></ul>	David Pencheon
12.45	Lunch
13.30	Parallels with local government especially the power of partnerships Linking local to national work on sustainability	Group exercise
14.00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Engagement methods: what works best</li><li>• Examples of narrative</li><li>• The importance of understanding and measuring co-benefits</li><li>• Toolkit for Health and Wellbeing Boards: version 2</li></ul>	David Pencheon Stephen Morton and plenary discussion
15.00	Resources and local support available from SDU and local health and sustainability networks. PHE support – publications, research, advocacy	David Pencheon Stephen Morton
16.00	Supporting individual DsPH and public health teams locally on this agenda	David Pencheon and plenary discussion
16.30	Close	