

Department
for Environment
Food & Rural Affairs

Public Health
England

Health Inequalities and Air Pollution

What can PH do to improve air quality?

Friday 24th November 2017; 10.00 - 15.00

Blenheim House, Duncombe Street, LS1 4PL, Leeds

Facilitator: Paul Lincoln, UKHF CEO and former chair of NICE Committee on Air Quality Guidelines

10.00		Registration and refreshments
10.30	Welcome and setting the context What's already happening and what is going to happen around Air Pollution.	Paul Lincoln
10.40	Air Pollution - the Policy Context	Prof Paul Cosford CB , Director for Health Protection & Medical Director, PHE
10.50	Why take action on air pollution? Air pollution: the impacts, the strength of the evidence and what is needed, health inequalities	Karen Exley , Group leader Air Quality and Public Health, Environmental Hazards and Emergencies Department PHE Rebecca Dangerfield , Joint Head of Local Air Quality, Defra
11.20	Local metrics and PHE liaison with local DsPH	Paul Davison , Deputy Director for Health Protection (North East), PHE
11.40	Group discussions PH role in Air Quality in the local authority settings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Key partnerships • Addressing common misconceptions around air quality 	Table discussions facilitators: Karen Exley, Alec Dobney, Rebecca Dangerfield, Amanda Craswell
12:15	Feedback and discussion	Paul Lincoln
12.30		Lunch
13.10	Wider health and well-being co-benefits of improving air quality	Nicola Corrigan , Health and Wellbeing Programme Manager for Yorkshire and the Humber, PHE
13.25	What can PH add – case study Understanding air pollution in Leeds – methodology for a local profile	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ian Cameron, Director of Public Health, Leeds City Council • Kevin McGready, Advanced Health Improvement Specialist - Health Protection, Leeds City Council
13.45	Group discussions – All else failing, how do we get there? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Influencing leaders and decision makers • Instigating change in communities 	Table discussions facilitators: Karen Exley, Alec Dobney, Rebecca Dangerfield, Amanda Craswell
14.30	Feedback and discussion on next steps What are we going to do differently?	Paul Lincoln
14.45	PHE review of the day	Prof Paul Cosford CB , Director for Health Protection & Medical Director, PHE
15.00		Close