

ADPH Annual Conference 2019

Leading into the future: the role of a DPH

Friday 22nd November 2019

9.30 - 16.30

Kia Oval, London, Kennington Oval, SE11 5SS

The conference will be chaired by Dr Jeanelle de Gruchy, ADPH President

9.15	Breakfast catch ups for Associate Members and new in post DsPH
9.30	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Welcome and introduction Reflections on ADPH activity and the Presidential role	Dr Jeanelle de Gruchy , DPH Tameside, ADPH President
10.20	Built environment / sustainability Speakers presentations followed by table discussions and Q&A to the panel	Chair: prof. Jim McManus , DPH Hertfordshire, ADPH Vice-President <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David Rudlin, Director, Urbed • Marcus Morrell, Foresight Associate, Arup • Oliver Jones, Director of Research, Ryder Architecture • Sue Morgan, Director of Architecture and Built Environment, Design Council
12.30	Lunch
12.50	Lunchtime chats (topics tbc)
13.20	Responsible Leadership: DPH perspective Commentaries from the panellists followed by table discussions and Q&A session	Chair: Rupert Suckling , DPH Doncaster, ADPH Membership Secretary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jo Grant / Adam Grodecki, Forward Institute • Alice Wiseman, DPH Gateshead • Sarah Scott, DPH Gloucestershire • Louise Smith, DPH Norfolk • Sandra Husbands, DPH City of London & London Borough of Hackney
14.30	Preparing for the future: The Wellbeing of Future Generations Act Speaker presentations followed by table discussions and Q&A	Chair: Dr Jeanelle de Gruchy , DPH Tameside, ADPH President <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Jyoti Atri, Executive Director Health and Wellbeing, Public Health Wales • Ruth Tennant, DPH Solihull
15.15	Summary and closing remarks	Dr Jeanelle de Gruchy , DPH Tameside, ADPH President
15.30	Refreshments and networking

Wi-Fi will be available on the day

Twitter | #ADPHConf19