

ADPH Planning and Health Workshop

Monday 25th March 2024

13:00 – 15:00

Chair: Darrell Gale (DPH East Sussex)

Facilitators: Sarah Willcox and Philip Ratcliff, Fairisle Consulting

Location: MS Teams Meeting (attendees will receive the joining link upon registration)

Purpose:

- To understand what the relationship between planning and public health professionals currently looks like.
- To develop long term collaboration between planning and public health professionals.
- To develop a shared language between planning and public health professionals.
- To identify what good looks like when planning and public health professionals work well together.

13:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Welcome and purpose of the workshop• Setting the scene across the 4 nations	Chair: Darrell Gale , DPH East Sussex Frederike Garbe , Public Health Consultant, Public Health Scotland
13:15	Discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What assumptions are being made about what each profession knows about each other's work? Define the common topic areas where planning and public health interact• What are the benefits of effective collaboration between planning and public health?• How have you achieved effective working with planning or public health professionals? What best practice can be shared?• What steps can you take to improve your relationship with planning or public health professionals?	All
14:30	Plenary and next steps	Chair: Darrell Gale , DPH East Sussex
15:00	Close
